

Preface ix

Acknowledgments xiii

Introduction xv

I. RESEARCH FOUNDATIONS AND THEORY

Introduction to Part I 1

1. Eye Movement Desensitization and Reprocessing Therapy 3

2. Addictions 21

3. The Stages of Change 43

4. Trauma 61

5. Assessment of Addictions and Trauma 71

II. CLINICAL IMPLICATIONS AND PRACTICAL INTERVENTIONS

Introduction to Part II 89

6. The Stage of Precontemplation 95

7. The Stage of Contemplation 103

8. The Stage of Preparation/Determination 113

9. The Stage of Action 127

10. The Stage of Maintenance and Relapse Prevention 135

11. Relapse and Recycling 145

12. Treating Comorbid Trauma and Addiction With EMDR Therapy 151

Afterword 159

III. CASE STUDIES

Introduction to Part III 161

1. Dana: Consecutive Day EMDR 163

2. Joanne: A Traditional Case Involving Trauma and Alcoholism 171

3. Tina: Therapy in Stages With a Traumatized Adolescent Marijuana Addict 177

4. Jack: The Sex Addict Who Wanted to Quit Smoking Cigarettes and Marijuana 181

5. Aidan: The Case of Addiction and Complex PTSD	185
6. Margo: The Client With Comorbid Alcoholism and Posttraumatic Stress Disorder	193
Conclusion	199
Appendix A: Screening Tools	201
Appendix B: Protocols	243
Appendix C: Resources	309
References	311
Index	335